Musical Engagement Agreement

Terms:

The band consists of four (4) members: Pianist, Bassist, Drummer, Engineer

Contractor agrees to provide the band with electricity, as well as a clean, safe and comfortable working environment.

In the case of an outdoor event, the contractor agrees to provide adequate shelter from the elements. If inclement weather prohibits playing outdoors, the contractor agrees to provide an alternate indoor venue for the same date, times and compensation referred to above.

Contractor agrees to provide each band member with _____ alcoholic beverages during the course of the musical performance and unlimited non-alcoholic beverages (ex: soda, coffee, water, etc.).

Contractor agrees to provide each band member with _____ meal(s) of the contractor's choosing on the date of the engagement.

Artist agrees to begin and end the performance on time. Should the artist be required to perform for longer than the agreed upon length of the show, extra monies must be paid to the artist proportionate to the "compensation versus length of show" rate established above.

Artist agrees to comply with all sound and decibel requirements set forth by the contractor.

The artist and band members shall be responsible for their own personal equipment (microphones, musical instruments, amplifiers, etc.) unless otherwise agreed upon with the contractor. The artist's P.A. is suitable for venues of up to 250 persons. For larger venues, the P.A. is furnished by contractor.

Artist may sell merchandise (ex: CDs, T-shirts or other artist related materials) during the performance.

If either party should break this contract for any reason, the defaulting party agrees to pay the other party a sum equal to the compensation agreed upon above on page 1 of this agreement.
